

Ovid N. Y. July 13th '48

Sir

I inclose an old letter, the foundation of the application to the Secy. of Boston made 14th Dec 1844 - in which, I beg leave to say, it was stated that "Joseph Grace" "did probably belong to ~~the~~ Wilmington", as he was an apprentice in that town to Mr Buttrifield - I refer you to the inclosed letter, from the history therein contained, the application was made, I refer you also to the application -

You will find the case by referring to your letter of May 27th 1845

Under the circumstances, may I not be allowed to ask you, to please re-examine the papers in this case, & to read the inclosed letter and report to me your opinion - to me it looks plainly in favor of the case, but I only ask the honest due -

Wm J L Edwards
Comm^r of Penitents

Respectfully
Your Obedt Serv^t
Arad Joz
